Their Demand That They Be Given Protection By Governor Is Heeded But State Police Arrive Too Late To Prevent The Deportation; At Columbus, W. B. Cleary Advises I. W. W. Men To Sit Tight.

RENO, Nev., Aug. 3.—Following numerous complaints against his actions among the miners in the Yerington copper district, a committee of 200 prominent citizens of Yerington presented I. W. W. McKenna to the county line last night and released him with orders not to come back. McKenna is a brother-in-law of W. D. Hayward.

Similar treatment was accorded 12 other members of the I. W. W. McKenna appealed to Gov. Boyle for protection and the governor sent a detachment of state police to take him in custody. They arrived too late, however, as the citizens' committee already had acted.

MAN IS CAUGHT IN UTAH SELLING COURT PLASTER FULL OF TETANUS GERMS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 3.—Charged with selling in and about Salt Lake court plaster infected with tetanus germs, Joe Bergerman, 21 years old, was arrested this morning by deputy sheriff John S. Corlies. The arrest followed the most immediate the announcement of Dr. T. D. Beatty, secretary of the state board of health, that court plaster sold by Bergerman showed under analysis the presence of the germ.

This is but one instance of the same character. Numerous arrests were made in Kansas City some days ago of men charged with peddling court plaster infected with tetanus germs. The view was expressed that Bergerman had placed the germs on the court plaster believing unsuspecting purchasers would apply them to skin abrasions. And thereby contract tetanus, which is more familiarly known as lockjaw.

The copy of the plaster held and will be tried. Other reports of the same character were received throughout the east. New York had an arrest of two.

Analysis At Washington.

A few days ago government officials in Washington caused an analysis of court plaster to be made and they found evidence of the presence of the tetanus germ.

Warning To Purchasers.

At that time the government issued warning to the public not to buy court plaster from sources of which they fell in doubt, and particularly not from peddlers. The government still lacks conclusive evidence of a German plot back of the tetanus menace.

Berlin And Vienna Planned War Despite German Denials, Shown By Proofs Received By The U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—Germany had possession of Austria's ultimatum to Serbia 14 hours before it was delivered to Belgrade, according to positive information which has reached officials here and which was made public today for the first time.

It was stated that former foreign secretary Zimmermann admitted this himself when pressed very closely as to Germany's foreknowledge of the action of her ally which precipitated the European war.

Denied By Germans.

Germany has maintained that she was not consulted by Austria as to the ultimatum which practically destroyed Serbia's independence and that she did not even have knowledge of the ultimatum until it was delivered to Belgrade.

Foreign secretary Zimmermann's admission, however, is interpreted here to show that Germany had full knowledge of the ultimatum to stop action on it if she felt it essential. Her intention, however, is felt to have proved her as accomplice of Austria, whom she had already told she would support in any decision she might make.

The Secret War Conference.

This fact fits in very closely with the recent announcement advanced by deputy Cohn in the Reichstag and since adopted by the allied governments that German and Austrian leaders held a war council at Potsdam on July 2, in which it was practically decided to plunge Europe into conflict. The interpretation placed on this council has been that Germany had full knowledge of all Austrian plans and stood unconsciously behind her.

Germany, however, has repeatedly denied the holding of such a conference.

Would Prosecute Cohn.

Amsterdam, Holland, Aug. 3.—The Deutsche Tages Zeitung challenges the German government to prosecute Cohn, Socialist member of the Reichstag, for his alleged revelations regarding the German government's participation in the secret war conference.

The newspaper says it knows the revelations published in the London Times came from Stockholm direct and from the German independent Socialists and it offers to give the fullest evidence if the government desires to court martial deputy Cohn.

WILSON IS SURE OKLAHOMA GOES TO BATTLE WITH ARMED MEN

U. S.—GERMANS ARE LOYAL President Says Many Loyal Citizens Placed In Unfortunate Position.

MADE TO SUFFER WITHOUT CAUSE Great Body Of German-Americans Entirely In Sympathy With U. S.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—President Wilson, in a letter to representative Dyer of Missouri, today reiterated his confidence in the loyalty of the great body of American citizens of German blood.

Representative Dyer complained that federal officials had charged without hearing and simply on statements of officials citizens of German blood in St. Louis, whose loyalty had been questioned.

"Your letters have struck a responsive chord in my mind," the president wrote. "I have been made aware from various sources of the unfortunate position in which a very large number of our loyal fellow citizens are placed because of their German origin or affiliations."

"I am sure that they need no further assurance from me of my confidence in the loyalty of the great body of our citizens of German blood. You know that not once but many times in my public addresses I have expressed confidence. I do not like to take another occasion to express it simply because it would seem to indicate my part a doubt as to whether the country had believed my previous assurances to be sincere. I am, however, very respectfully suggest that it would be easy to make use of the president's address to do something. I have not a little in mind the evil influence that are at work."

OKLAHOMA POSSE GOES TO BATTLE WITH ARMED MEN 30 ANTI DRAFTERS KILL DEPUTY AND BURN OR BLOW UP BRIDGE

One Report Says Band Is On Way To Sasakwa To Attack Hardware Stores and Seize Guns and Ammunition; Another That Men Are Intrenched and Are Ready To Fight; Appeals Sent To Governor.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 3.—Appeals for assistance in quelling a mob of alleged draft resisters were received by governor Williams this afternoon from Wewoka, Seminole county.

Thirty alleged draft resisters who are believed to have shot deputy sheriff J. W. Cross yesterday, and last night to have fired or dynamited a Frisco trestle between Francis and Ada, are reported to have established themselves near Sasakwa to resist attack. Poses have started to give battle to the band.

Another report from Ada stated that the men are proceeding to Sasakwa to storm hardware stores and seize guns and ammunition. Members of the band are heavily armed and are said to be forcing innocent boys and men to go with them.

Two men escaped from the mob last night and are seeking protection from officers at Ada. According to their story, it is the plan of the organizers to burn all railroad bridges in this section of the country and draft sufficient men into their organization to enable them to offer organized resistance to enforcement of the selective service law.

An alleged anti-draft organization calling itself the "Working Class Union," is said to be scattered through Seminole county where the shooting and bridge damage occurred.

A quantity of dynamite also was exploded on the Missouri Pacific bridge near Gore, Okla.

MINERS REFUSE TO END STRIKE MOORE, I. W. W. ASKS 'RIGHTS'

Won't Accept Proffered Concessions, Mass Meeting at Miami Decides.

MIAMI, Ariz., Aug. 3.—Concessions offered by the mine operators of the Globe-Miami district in the hope of ending the strike were refused last night on a vote by the striking miners of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers.

The concessions were explained by federal mediator John McBride, who told of his conference with the operators and the union. He said he had also conferred with the Industrial Workers of the World leaders. He said their case no longer merited consideration, for the leaders had told him they would not consent to any kind of a local agreement "for one week, day, hour, minute" because they wanted their strike to be a national matter and not possessed of the possibility of a local settlement.

May Sign Up To Work.

Globe, Ariz., Aug. 3.—Over 500 signatures to loyalty league membership and to blanket signing desire to return to work under protection offered by federal troops, were made voluntarily yesterday by miners, smeltermen, and other workmen. The companies have given no intimation yet as to when they will start up. Supplies are being delivered daily by the railroad.

GERMANS POOR RAJ OF SHELLS ITALY ARMED BOMBARD POLA

Heavy Downpour of Rain Continues and Further Offensive By Allies is Rendered Impossible Until Weather Clears; British Are Holding Ground in New Positions Which Have Been Strongly Consolidated.

BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE AND BELGIUM, Aug. 3.—Artillery duels of considerable intensity continued in night along the British front in Flanders, but generally speaking, the German guns were less active this morning and the situation was unchanged. At daybreak the Germans concentrated a heavy gunfire on the newly acquired British positions in the area south of the Ypres-Merits road.

St. Julien yesterday was a strong center, the artillery of both sides pointed steadily at the opposite positions along this place. The British were again in possession of the road from the Ypres-Merits road, which the Germans wrested from them in a counter attack late Wednesday. In sharp drive Wednesday night, after heavy artillery preparations, the British forced the Germans from this strong position and have held it since.

Germans Snipe From Shell Holes.

Detailed reports of Tuesday's battle show that the front between Holbeke and La Bassée was the scene of some of the heaviest fighting of the day. The Australians, who were swept over large numbers of German positions in shell holes which were overlooked in the semi-darkness immediately after the British troops had begun beyond these holes the Germans began sniping from shell holes. The British troops in this section is said to have been good and they made a stiff fight for some time, which they finally had to relinquish.

Concrete Dugouts Blown Up.

In the ruined village of Holbeke the British were faced with large numbers of concrete dugouts which had no surface entrances but which were approached by a tunnel. The attacking troops were forced to dig large numbers of men and blew them by placing high explosive in the ground tunnel in front of the German bodies. Just north of Holbeke two strongholds along a position were occupied without stop.

Other Checks Encountered.

On the ground overlooking Eschscheld, the British encountered shell holes, camouflaged with wire netting and hedge which had been interlined with barbed wire. This delayed their progress somewhat but did not save the Germans.

Further fighting occurred here and the Australians who were conducting the offensive carried the position with bayonets, killing large numbers of the enemy.

Fighting For Windmill.

One notable incident of the day's fighting occurred on the Warneton-Lepard farm road at a windmill on a slight elevation. The fighting was only had been bitterly contested because it overlooks the surrounding country which is very flat. The Australians took the place in the early morning but the Germans regained it some time later. At dawn when the infantry advance began, the whole country was blanketed by thick, low-lying clouds, and by afternoon rain had begun to fall.

Despite these tremendous disadvantages huge squadrons of British

READJUSTMENT OF DRAFT

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Aug. 3.—Bingham City, through its commercial club is appealing to the United States government for relief from a discriminatory military draft.

What Bingham wants is either assurance that aliens are to be conscripted in the same manner as the citizens of the United States, or else a change in the first draft call to adjust it to the present conditions. The city council has voted to appeal to the United States Senate.

Senator Hiram Bingham, who is in the city, has been called to the United States Senate. He has at his disposal the records of the city's registration in 1916. It was announced today.

Local boards were formally instructed by the War Department to register all men who are in the city. The city council has been called for examination, does not create a status of exemption, but it justifies immunity from conscription.

With All Towns Like This, We'd Win Quick

NILES, Mich., Aug. 3.—Niles has set an example for the rest of the country, has sacrificed its own comfort and convenience for the sake of sick and wounded soldiers.

The city council of Niles has voted $5000 to the Red Cross, and did it with a check and without a thought of its cost to the city. It may have to be taken out of the city improvement fund. It may leave the streets covered with slush in the winter, with mud and debris in the summer, but the town has been well cared for with that $5000. And the citizens of Niles won't mind the hardships. It's much easier to go with wet and freezing than to brave the trenches and the battlefield.

The town has a population of 4000 or less—but 315 men registered and 227 applied for enlistment.

Infantry were given the task today of searching for men who evaded registration under the selective draft. A detailed search of dance halls, pool rooms and other places of amusement and the questioning of several hundred men brought 34 arrests.

The War AIA Glance

THE Flanders front where the great offensive launched by the entente on Tuesday is still being held up by unbreakable weather, remains the center of military interest. Along other sections of the line in the west, however, there is notable activity, suggesting attempts to deflect the course of the main entente effort.

Today's British official report recoiled that the Germans last night delivered an attack on the Arras battle front, billing into the British front on infantry and machine gunners. There was a swift reaction by Gen. Haig's force and by this morning part of the lost ground had already been regained.

FRENCH REPEL GERMAN.

Likewise on the French front in the Alsace region there have been no violent German attacks. The French were ready for these, however. The attack was deflected on a front of about half a mile in the vicinity of Cerny. It failed under the French fire, the crown prince's troops suffering from the Russian front.

On the Russian front the Austro-German forces have again been virtually stopped by the fighting during the course of the war but was considered to have become Russian virtually beyond dispute when Gen. Brusilov swept all of Bukovina free from Austrian forces last year and advanced far westward from the Bukovina border. It remained for the disorganization that developed in the Russian armies last month to upset these calculations.
